'Let Your Light Shine'

1. Introduction

At Rangeworthy Church of England Primary school we recognise that the personal development of pupils, spiritually, morally, socially and culturally (SMSC) plays a significant part in their ability to learn and achieve. SMSC is a dimension of the whole school experience which makes the curriculum relevant, stimulating, creative and fun. The holistic approach to education with a recognition of SMSC enriches each subject and is an essential ingredient of school success and the development of our pupils as good citizens.

The provision for, and impact of, spiritual, moral, social and cultural development in our schools is scrutinised by both OfSTED and SIAMS (Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools) inspections.

As Church of England schools, our SMSC is further developed through the Christian vision, values and ethos that drive our Trust.

2. Spiritual Development

Opportunities for spiritual development will be actively planned into all aspects of the curriculum. Spiritual capacities such as imagination, empathy, and insight will be modelled in different ways by staff and also encouraged and celebrated in children.

2.1 Aims

In order to foster spiritual development, the school aims to provide children with opportunities to;

- Develop an appreciation of their uniqueness and value as a child made in the image of God.
- Develop an understanding of the distinctive ethos of this church school as well as the context, language and symbolism of the Christian faith.
- Develop knowledge and understanding of the school's core Christian values and the Biblical teaching that underpins them.
- Develop an appreciation of what it means to be a part of a community (e.g. using their gifts and abilities in the service of others).
- Develop the skills and language required to enable them to reflect upon the big questions and mysteries of life.
- Develop an awareness that experiences of disappointment, failure and loss may be occasions for spiritual growth.
- Understand the value of difference and diversity through involvement with others.

'Let Your Light Shine'

2.2 Teaching and Learning

Through teaching and learning, the school pursues these aims by ensuring;

- The curriculum and all areas of our community life will be explicitly rooted in Christian values, such as forgiveness, respect, truthfulness, courage, friendship and trust, as documented in all school policies.
- Opportunities for spiritual development will be pro-actively planned into the curriculum and actively encouraged in all areas of school life.
- Collective Worship will celebrate the love of God for every individual and provide opportunities for children to respond to this.
- The school building and outdoor environment will provide appropriate spaces for silence, stillness and reflection and/or prayer.
- That children's spiritual capacities such as imagination, empathy and insight will be fostered through the creative arts and interactive multi-sensory teaching strategies.
- That children's moral development will be linked to spiritual development through strategies such as reflection journals.
- That the RE curriculum will deliver knowledge and understanding about a range of faith perspectives relating to spirituality.
- That children will be given as many opportunities as possible to explore the wonder of the natural world and to develop an understanding of the Christian belief that creation is a gift from God to be enjoyed, cherished and protected.

3. Moral Development

Morality is not just about good behaviour, it is about shared values that are rooted in Christian belief. These include forgiveness, justice truth and integrity. These beliefs shape the values that lie at the heart of a church school and will characterise its approach to moral development.

3.1 Aims

To foster moral development, the school aims to provide children with opportunities to show;

- Recognise the difference between right and wrong and begin to understand how Christian values inform a particular perspective on moral choices.
- Understand how our moral choices can affect the lives of others.
- Be able to work together to agree codes of behaviour that are appropriate for our school community.
- Understand the centrality of forgiveness and reconciliation in the life and culture of our school.

'Let Your Light Shine'

- Begin to engage with big questions concerning morality and ethical issues in the wider community and in the world, and to realise that each of us has a responsibility to work for justice.

3.2 Teaching and Learning

- Our Christian values are shared with members of our school community through our website and school documentation.
- Collective Worship and assemblies celebrate practical demonstrations of Christian values lived out in the life of the school, local and wider community. e.g. celebration assembly awards.
- Our Behaviour Policy makes clear that every child is treated fairly and is always offered the opportunity for a fresh start.
- Parents and carers are made aware, through our website and other documentation, of our school's expectations regarding behaviour, as well as the rewards and sanctions that we operate.
- Children gain skills in conflict resolution through peer mediation training and problem-solving strategies.
- Children are made aware of moral and ethical issues in the national and international context through, for example, representatives from charities, e.g. the local foodbank, being invited into the school to talk about their work.
- The School Council is fully involved, alongside teachers, senior leaders and the Local Academy Committee in reviewing the impact of our Christian values on the behaviour, culture and ethos of our school.

4. Social Development

Social development is about living successfully in the community. Although some members of the church school may not be part of the local church community, there will nonetheless be an expectation that all relationships will be informed by Christian values. These values will be modelled by staff and governors and encouraged and celebrated in children. The Bible stories that underpin the school's values will be explored and creatively expressed so that they become familiar and inspirational to us all.
