How to submit your child's learning:

For most activities, your child should be able to 'Turn In' their learning through the Google Classroom platform. However, you might wish to take photos and screen shots of work and attach them to the assignment.

How parents can get help and support?

For enquiries and support, please ask via Google Classroom by making a comment below the daily post. A member of staff will be regularly checking the post and responding. However, please be mindful that we will be teaching children of 'critical workers' in class throughout the day and therefore will not necessarily be able to respond to your enquiry immediately.
