Library Design Winners

Each of our winners will receive a book voucher courtesy of the Rangeworthy Parent Association

We now hope to start work on improving our library in the Spring term. We will keep you updated!

Talent Gallery

Our Talent of the week is Lily from Galileo Class who researched and drew this amazing picture Athena the Goddess of Knowledge.

We are all very proud of you Lily!

Baret Class

Carter class were visited by firefighters from Yate Station. They talked to us about all the different jobs they do and showed us the special suits they wear to attend a fire. They also taught us what to do if there is a fire at home, and we learned to stop, drop and roll.

SCHOOL HALL 12th Dec at 9.00am to 10.00am

We say a sad goodbye to Mrs Miller whose secondment from the Castle School Education Trust (CSET) will come to an end on December the 15th.

Mrs Miller has been an amazing teacher and will be missed dearly by the whole school community.

Mrs Miller's role has been pivotal in supporting Rangeworthy over the last 12 months.

We thank Mrs Miller for her hard work and wish her lots of luck for the future.

Hello!

We say a big hello to Mrs Sheikh who will be joining the Rangeworthy community as of January.

Mrs Sheikh will be the new Carter Class Teacher.

Mrs Sheikh is an experienced teacher and will be taking on the role of SENDCO as well as class teacher.

If your child is in Carter Class and you are available on Tuesday 5th December from 2.30 to 3.00pm and would like to meet and greet Mrs Sheikh, please pop along to the school hall.
